Simpson College
MACJ Program
Comprehensive Exam Reading List

Please note that the recommended readings are organized generally around the three areas of the MACJ comprehensive examination, that is, (1) theory, (2) methods/statistics, and (3) substantive issues. Some works may cross over to more than one category, so please use this as a guide to your studying and not a definitive work.

Readings that were required in the six Core courses can be found below, in green and with an asterisk (*). The course associated with the text/reading is listed in parentheses at the end of the citation.

Readings that were required in eight Elective courses (most recently to fall 2013) can be found below, in purple and with a crosshatch (#). The course associated with the text/reading is listed in parentheses at the end of the citation.

Theory

Methods/Statistics

Substantive Issues

*Schulz, William. (2002). In Our Own Best Interest: How Defending Human Rights Benefits Us
All. Beacon Press. (CJ540)

* = Core course  # = Elective course  MACJ Reading List 2014  sjo 01/2014