“It is more important than ever that we encourage and inspire public-spirited adults, so they may always possess the knowledge to improve their neighborhoods, their workplaces and their world.”

-Senator John C. Culver
The John C. Culver Fellowship is awarded to students with a passion for politics, history or public service. Culver Fellows will have unique opportunities to pursue a variety of programs sponsored by Simpson College.

Each year, up to five incoming students will be named Culver Fellows and awarded a minimum of $14,000.

Eligibility Criteria

- New full-time first-year student
- John C. Culver Fellowship application submitted by January 15, 2014
- Strong academic ability as evidenced by high school performance including standardized test scores
- Demonstrated passion for history, politics or public service and potential for leadership

All candidates for this fellowship must complete the Simpson College application for admission and receive notification of acceptance.

Due to the generous amount of this fellowship, it may not be combined with other Simpson College merit scholarships. Students may, however, be eligible for need-based institutional, state or federal financial assistance.
