

SIMPSON COLLEGE

WOMEN'S AND

GENDER STUDIES

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES MINOR

Students who minor in Women's Studies must complete six courses. The minor is compatible with a number of majors. The following courses are required for the minor:

REQUIRED COURSES:

- WmSt 101 Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies
- WmSt 399 Portfolio in Women's and Gender Studies

ELECTIVES: Choose four courses from the following, no more than two in a single department:

- Comm 275 Gender, Race, Class, and Media
- CJ 333 Sexual Violence
- Educ 321 Human Relations in Teaching
- Eng 234 Women's Literature, Women's Lives
- Hist 222 American Women's History
- Hist 322 Women and Gender in European History
- Phil 211 Feminist Ethics
- Phil 225 Ethical Issues in Sexuality
- Phil 311 Feminist Philosophy
- PoSc 266 Women and Politics
- Psyc 220 Psychology of Gender
- Rel 322 Theologies of the Oppressed
- Rel 225 Women and Religion in American Culture
- Rel 230 Women and Christianity
- Rel 260 Feminist Interpretation of the Bible
- Soc309 Women, Gender and Society
- Thtr 235 Women and Theatre
- Thtr 245 Theatre and Social Change

Regular semester 190/290/390 Special Topics courses and May Term courses may be accepted, pending administrative approval, for credit toward the minor. In addition, students can request that appropriate internships or research projects count toward the minor.

Students interested in pursuing a major in Women's and Gender Studies may do so through a Social Justice Studies major with a Concentration Area in Women's and Gender Studies.