PART-TIME ADJUNCT INSTRUCTORS | DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

Simpson College, a private liberal-arts college dedicated to quality teaching, seeks applications for part-time adjunct instructors in the Department of Computer Science.

Essential functions include teaching at the undergraduate level. Teaching duties could include courses covering topics in management information systems, project management, systems analysis & design, knowledge management, e-commerce, Microsoft Office applications such as Excel and Access, programming (Python and Java), web development, and database structures.

Courses are offered through the Division of Continuing & Graduate Programs and could include evening eight-week hybrid and/or online offerings. Some programming and database courses are full semester sections.

Qualified applicants should have a minimum of a master’s degree in the respective or related area; possess excellent communication skills, ability to use technology in teaching, ability to use collaborative learning techniques, and face-to-face and online teaching experience in related discipline preferred.

To apply, send a letter of interest, resume, copy of transcript, current teaching license and the names and addresses of three references to:

Director of Human Resources
Simpson College
701 North C Street
Indianola, IA  50125

or by e-mail to employment@simpson.edu.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Simpson College does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to help constitute a diverse community. We are particularly interested in receiving applications from members of underrepresented groups. You will find the entire EOE statement here.

Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and the ability to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Employment will require a criminal background check, which may include, but is not limited to- criminal history and national sex offender search.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.