

PART-TIME ADJUNCT INSTRUCTORS | DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

The Teacher Education Department at Simpson College invites applications for an adjunct Geography instructor to teach a fully online Geography of the Developing World course during Spring 2021. We seek candidates who will be knowledgeable and committed to providing a rigorous and engaging online Geography experience for students typically seeking teacher licensure in the field of social studies. Responsibilities include teaching the online course, preparing teaching materials, and assessing student learning. A master's degree is required, preferably in Geography or a closely related field, but a master's degree with graduate coursework in geography will be considered. To apply, send a letter of interest, resume, copy of transcript, current teaching license and the names and addresses of three references to:

Director of Human Resources
Simpson College
701 North C Street
Indianola, IA 50125

or by e-mail to employment@simpson.edu.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Simpson College does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to help constitute a diverse community. We are particularly interested in receiving applications from members of underrepresented groups. You will find the entire EOE statement here.

Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and the ability to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Employment will require a criminal background check, which may include, but is not limited to- criminal history and national sex offender search.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
